Shifting from consumer spending to advertising spending

- Rise of digital platforms and streaming services has led to a shift in consumer behavior, with more people opting for digital content over traditional media such as print and television.

- Shift towards subscription models: Many entertainment and media companies in Hong Kong are shifting towards subscription-based models, which has led to a decline in revenue from the sales of physical media.

- Changes in consumer preferences and expectations, Consumers are increasingly seeking personalised and immersive experiences. As such, companies must provide high quality content and services that are attractive to consumers and drive spending.
After a strong rebound in 2021, projections show E&M growth in Hong Kong will be steady with a CAGR of 3.47% between 2022 and 2027.

- Healthy growth has been the major trend for Hong Kong E&M since the start of the post-COVID recovery in 2022, mainly driven by cinema and business-to-business segments.
- Hong Kong E&M revenue is expected to reach US$11bn in 2027.
